EDWARD L. HENNESSY, JR.

Edward L. Hennessy, Jr. is Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Allied Corporation, a position he attained in December 1979, after having joined Allied as President and Chief Executive Officer in May of that year.

His business career began with Textron, Inc. as Assistant Controller in 1950, and he joined Lear Siegler, Inc. as Group Controller, Eastern Electronics Group in 1956. He joined International Telephone & Telegraph Corporation as Controller for International Electronic Corporation in 1960, becoming Controller for Corporate staff in 1961 and for ITT

Europe in 1962.

Mr. Hennessy became Director of Finance, Europe, Middle East and Africa for Colgate-Palmolive Company in 1964. Joining Heublin, Inc. he served as Vice President, Finance in 1965 and as Senior Vice President, Administration and Finance in 1969.

In 1972, he became Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration as well as a member of the Board of Directors with United Technologies Corporation. He was named their Executive Vice President, Group Vice President Systems and Equipment Group and Chief Financial Officer in 1977.

Mr. Hennessy was born March 22, 1928 in Boston, Mass. He was graduated in 1955 with a Bachelor of Science degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University, and is now a Trustee. He also attended New York University Law School.

Mr. Hennessy is Director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and the Coast Guard Academy Foundation, Inc. He belongs to Opportunities Industrialization Centers of America, Inc. and is a Member, National Industrial Advisory Council. He serves as President, Tri-County Scholarship Fund (N.J.) and Trustee, Morristown Memorial Hospital (N.J.).

He is a member of the Conference Board, Inc., Economic Club of New York and Financial Executives Institute. His honorary degrees include Doctor of Humane Letters, St. Peters College and Doctor of Laws, University of South Carolina.

He is married with two children.
