THE TEXACAR[®] CARBONATES. WE MAKE THEM PURE, CLEAR, AND COLORLESS.

You won't have to worry about impurities altering your product's true color when the solvent is TEXACAR EC ethylene carbonate or TEXACAR PC propylene carbonate. Our superior technology, extensive experience, and strict quality control are your assurance that TEXACAR carbonates will always be crystal clear and colorless, shipment after shipment.

TEXACAR EC and PC are both excellent solvents and plasticizers for many polymeric and other relatively insoluble organic compounds. Low toxicity, high flash points, and exemption from Rule-66 type air pollution ordinances add to their versatility.

For more information about the carbonates that are pure and colorless, not yellow, call or write: Technical Sales Development Supervisor, Specialty Chemicals, Texaco Chemical Company, P.O. Box 27707, Houston, Texas 77227-7707, 1-800-882-4949.

Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh is situated in Southwestern Pennsylvania in Allegheny County. The city is located within 500 miles of 70 percent of the nation's population.

Climate

With four distinct seasons, Pittsburgh's average temperatures range from a low of 28 degrees in January to a high of 72 degrees in July. The temperate climate creates rich green landscapes in spring and summer, and colorful foliage in autumn.

Economy

Pittsburgh offers a balanced economic base. The progressive economy grew from a once prosperous industrial community to an economy based on information and service.

Transportation

Served by the 15th busiest airport in the country, Pittsburgh's international airport ranks number two in the nation in land area and is the hub of the USAir system. Pittsburgh is the site of one of the country's largest corporate airports—Allegheny County Airport. In terms of tonnage originating and passing through a river system, Pittsburgh is the busiest inland port in the nation.

Corporate

Fourteen Fortune 500 companies are based in Pittsburgh, manufacturing products ranging from sauces to software. More than 600 firms are involved in the area's advanced technology industry.

Education

Higher education is the area's second largest industry. Students attend 31 colleges and universities, 95 public school districts, 233 private schools, and more than 70 vocational and trade schools.

Health Care

With an international reputation as a pioneer in transplant surgery and medical research, Pittsburgh offers health care at more than 55 area hospitals. The site of the first combined heart/liver transplant, Presbyterian University Hospital is the only facility in the world that performs all types of transplants.

The Arts

Rich in cultural activities, Pittsburgh is home to more than 200 active performing arts groups including the internationally acclaimed Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and Duquesne University Tamburitzans.

Dining

More than 300 restaurants are located in Allegheny County, including award-winning establishments with views of the Downtown area.

Shopping

The Golden Triangle's ten square blocks are filled with a variety of department and specialty stores, including familiar names such as Saks and Brooks Brothers, as well as designer boutiques. Many of the city's neighborhoods feature quaint shopping areas.

Sports

Offering year-round sports events, Pittsburgh is proud of its four Superbowl trophies and World Series Titles. The Penguins are skating to the top of the NHL, while local colleges and universities are courting basketball fans.

Recreation

Pittsburgh offers four-season recreation ranging from boating to skiing. Allegheny County features more golf courses per capita than anywhere else in the country.

Population	1,450,085
Altitude	710 to 1,370 feet
Average temperature	January—33°F July—75°F
Area Code	412
Time Zone	Eastern

Videotape of Pittsburgh Chemical Day Events Available

This year you may purchase videocassette tapes of Pittsburgh Chemical Day's keynote address by The Honorable Robert A. Mosbacher and the forum on Viability Of Chemicals—Which Will Survive the 90's? Tapes are available in both VHS and Beta formats.

Please place your orders through:

VideoTone Productions
P.O. Box 832
Corapolis, PA 15108
(412) 269-0080

Costs:

Keynote address only	$35

PA residents please add 6% sales tax.

Note: Videocassette tapes of last year's keynote address and forum also are available at the above prices, with a special price of $120 if you wish to order keynote and forum tapes from both years (four tapes in all).

DOWNTOWN

Framed by three picturesque rivers, Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle captures the essence of a cosmopolitan city without forfeiting its small town charm. Pittsburgh's Downtown area tastefully combines form-of-the-century architectural masterpieces with uniquely styled structures to create a dazzling skyline. Within 10 square blocks, Pittsburgh offers first-class accommodations, diverse restaurants, fashionable shops, historic attractions and opulent entertainment facilities. Small parks, ideal for relaxing, are located throughout the heart of the city.

Chemical & Engineering News Chemyclopedia, and Today's Chemist

Chemical & Engineering News is the world's leading chemical magazine. Published weekly, C&ENews has the largest and most experienced editorial staff, the biggest industrial circulation, and the most advertising.

Chemyclopedia, our annual chemical buyers' guide, serves an exclusive and massive audience of technical specifiers in industry with in-depth purchasing data that promotes product usage.

Today's Chemist is the only magazine dealing with the personal interests of 62,000 U.S. chemists: their finances, their leisure activities, and many other "people" concerns.

For more information on C&E News, Chemyclopedia, and Today's Chemist, call Ben Jones, Executive Vice President, at 215-667-9666 or contact your local representative below:
