THE POWER OF PITTSBURGH

Put it to work for your business.

The 10-county Pittsburgh region has all the assets for success: location, affordability, workforce, innovation and quality of place. Plus, it has one of the U.S.'s most stable economies.* Altogether, these make the region a top location to establish or grow a business.

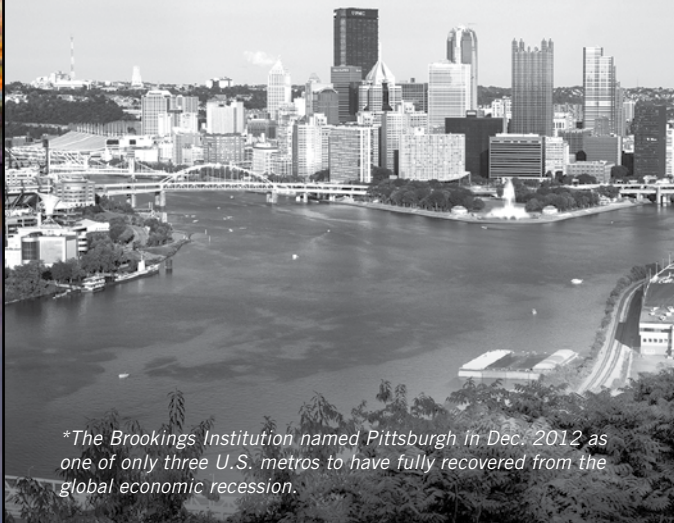

The Pittsburgh Regional Alliance offers complimentary professional economic development services including:

- Site selection assistance
- Global business assistance
- Access to financial assistance
- Market research and analysis
- Talent attraction and retention
- Peer executive meetings

Building Intelligently

Saving Energy

Science For A Better Life

Children have dreams that can come true. At Bayer, we have visions that we do our utmost to fulfill.

As one of the world's leading producers of high-quality polymer materials, Bayer MaterialScience offers intelligent solutions for energy-efficient construction in all the world's climate zones. High-performance insulating materials made of polyurethane ensure that roofs, ceilings, walls and floors are insulated effectively. This reduces the energy consumption of buildings significantly.

Together with our partners, we bring our visions of energy-saving construction to life – for the sake of climate protection, and for the generations of tomorrow. www.bayer.com
